Plas Tan y Bwlch

I am writing in response to your email dated 9 September 2024 in which you requested the link to a report published by Audit Wales on the governance of National Park Authorities, specifically referring to Plas Tan y Bwlch.

The report published earlier this year on the governance of National Park Authorities does not include any references to Plas Tan Y Bwlch, but can be found here.

However, the following recent reports have mentioned the property:

- Income Diversification – Eryri National Park Authority May 2023, which included a recommendation relating to the property:

- Resilient and Sustainable Services in Snowdonia National Park Authority April 2021, which specifically comments on the property:

- Income Diversification for National Park Authorities in Wales September 2023, which mentions it briefly:

If you have any queries about my handling of your request, please do not hesitate to contact me.
