

Privacy notice – stakeholder engagement

This privacy notice tells you about how Audit Wales processes information about you in connection with your participation as a stakeholder in our review of our website, communications and publications.

We are collecting information from stakeholders to help us to understand how we can communicate our work as effectively and accessibly as possible through our website and publications. Stakeholder feedback will mean that changes we make are well informed and designed to meet the needs of our audiences – members of the public, the organisations we audit and other people with an interest in our work.

This privacy notice tells you about how Audit Wales processes any personal data provided by you in connection with this survey.

The relevant laws

Audit Wales processes your personal data in accordance with data protection legislation, including the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (GDPR). The legal basis for the collection of personal is the performance of a task in the public interest under the statutory powers and duties under legislation including Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004, Public Audit (Wales) Act 2013, Government of Wales Act 1998, Government of Wales Act 2006, Local Government (Wales) Measure 2009; Wellbeing of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015.

What we will do with your information

We will use the anonymous information provided to us to help inform improvements to the way we report and communicate our work and purpose.

Retention

We will keep your personal data for the periods specified in our Documents and Records Management Policy, and we will hold your data securely in accordance with our Information Security Policy.

Your rights

Under data protection law you have the right to request a copy of the current personal information held about you and a right to raise an objection to data processing that causes unwarranted and substantial damage and distress.

If you wish to discuss any objections or concerns, or obtain a copy of the current personal information held about you, please contact the Information Officer at infoofficer@audit.wales or on 02920 320572.

The Information Commissioner's Office

If you require further information in relation to your rights under data protection law or are dissatisfied with how we are handling your personal data, you may contact the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF, or email casework@ico.gsi.gov.uk, or telephone 01625 545745.
